

Local Co-operative Hold Annual Meeting

The second Annual Meeting of the Wainwright and District Co-operative Association Limited was held on February 13, 1946 in the L.O.O.F. hall in Wainwright.

Mr. Henry Ruste was chairman of the meeting and Jack Perkins was secretary.

Reports of the directors, the store manager and auditors were given by Mr. Henry Ruste, Mr. D. I. MacGregor and Mr. C. Horn and were accepted by the share holders.

The auditors for 1945 were Mackintosh and Kristensen (Chartered accountants) 210 Bank of Nova Scotia Building, Edmonton, Alberta.

The following is resume of the meeting.

Accounts Receivable:
According to the Rochdale Principles set out in England over 100 years ago all co-operatives should operate on a strictly cash basis. It has been agreed by good Canadian business men that thirty days credit is considered cash. On these basis the Wainwright Co-operative Association Ltd. operates on a sound accounts receivable plan.

Borrowed Capital:
It was necessary for the association to borrow nearly twenty thousand dollars to complete agreements to purchase the buildings, equipment and stock. The membership has reached 425 and these members have bought fourteen thousand seven and seventy dollars in shares. That is good but it is not nearly good enough. The large amount of borrowed capital drew sharp criticism from the members and it was agreed that some immediate steps should be taken. The meeting urged that the board of directors make plans for a share selling campaign large enough to pay off all or part of the nearly $20,000.00 of borrowed capital.

Merchandise:
Manager MacGregor reported that due to the war some things were still off the market or hard to get and that the future looked poor. Certain stock such as men's winter overcoats has to be purchased several months ahead of time to assure the store of a good supply of merchandise at all times. "You can see what this means, it means tying up money which the association has not got," continued on page 6

Beekkeepers Attend Meeting Monday

Owing to the condition of the roads last Monday, many interested people were unable to attend the meeting of beekkeepers which was held in the L.O.O.F. Hall.

In all about 25 interested people were in attendance to hear the main address given by Mr. R. E. English, vice-president of the Beekkeepers Association of Alberta. Mr. English was pinch hitting for Mr. LeMaistre, the provincial apiarist who was unable to leave the city due to other engagements.

Several films were shown on the beekkeeping industry which gave special emphasis to the wintering of colonies of bees. This subject was very well received and much interest was shown.

Many questions were asked and answered and the general feeling of this meeting was that everybody enjoyed themselves and gained much knowledge from these lectures.

Mr. Townley-Smith, district agriculturist, was also in attendance at this meeting and answered questions placed to him by the audience at large.

St. Andrew's (Pres.) Church was the setting for a very pretty double ceremony on Saturday evening, February 16th at 7:00 o'clock when Miss Anne Davidson Wyllie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Wyllie of Coal Valley exchanged marriage vows with Edward Newton Hill son of Mrs. J. and the late Mr. Jack Hill of Wainwright, before a pulpit banked with spring flowers and rose buds.

Rev. A. R. Hancock officiated at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was charming in a floor-length ivory satin gown with fitted bodice and full gathered skirt. Her full length veil was held by a tulle of seed pearls and the only ornament worn was a four strand pearl necklace, gift of the groom, she carried a cascade bouquet of red roses with tiny white mistletoe's knots.

Mrs. R. Bras supported her sister as matron of honor gowned in floor-length blue sheer with full skirt and blue net chapel veil. She carried a bouquet of spring flowers.

Acting as bridesmaid Miss Grace Wilson was lovely in pale yellow sheer with matching chapel veil and carried spring flowers.

Mr. Irvin Fredericks of Bruce supported the groom as best man.

Messrs. Frank McLeod and Sidney MacDonald ushered the guests to their places in the church.

Miss Bada Nordstrom supplied the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. P. Sheffield who sang "I Walk Be- side You" during the signing of the register, also "I Love You Truly" later at the reception.

A reception to some seventy guests was held in the Masonic Hall where Mrs. Wyllie, mother of the bride received in a two-piece mauve ensemble with matching accessories and a corsage of roses.

Mrs. Hill, mother of the groom chose a brown and gold frock with accessories to match, she also wore a corsage of tea roses.

The bride table laid in silk and lace centred by a three tiered wedding cake flanked by a few tall white candles in silver holders with roses completing the decorative scheme.

Toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. P. T. Haywood and fittingly received by the groom. Rev. A. R. Hancock then spoke a few well chosen words to the young couple.

For travelling the bride changed to a two-piece blue dress and rose topcoat with brown accessories. They will spend their honeymoon in Edmonton and points west, later returning to make their home at 11520 - 101st Street, Edmonton.

Bride-Elect Feted At Shower

A very enjoyable time was spent on Monday evening in the basement of the Presbyterian Church when Miss Beaulieu Armstrong and Mr. Harry Nelson were entertained at a shower in honour of their marriage which will take place this week.

The program, with Rev. A. R. Hancock in charge, consisting of a sing-song, various solos and duets readings and contests, was enjoyed by all.

The high-light of the evening was the presentation of a number of beautiful and useful gifts by Mrs. Hancock to the happy couple for which they suitably thanked those present.

A delightful lunch was later served by the hostesses, Mrs. Harden and Mrs. Hancock assisted by Mrs. Lambert, Misses Vera Arthur, Nellie Schlender, Myrtle Nicholson and Hilda Klassen after which the evening closed with a few appropriate words from Mr. Hancock, and all joining hands and singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."—H.K.

Lunch was served shortly after midnight and the guest cleaned up on that too, there wasn't even a crumb left for the sparrows after everyone had been served. Another hour of listening followed, the orchestra continuing their starting performance of handing out music just the way it was meant to be handed out, congratulations on a grand music-making job.

There's really lots more to tell, but we must leave room for other news, so as mentioned earlier, you will just have to ask these neighbors to supply the missing details.

And now the members of the Club wish to thank most heartily all of those who assisted in so many ways to make this dance such a huge success and in turn make our Peace Memorial that much closer. We thought of the kindness and the wonderful crowd that turned out from every section of the Town and surrounding district.—Con.

Valentine Dance Draws Large Crowd

The West End Community Club's Valentine Dance was held at scheduled on Thursday evening February 14 in the Separate School Auditorium. There were over two hundred people of the town and district who will not have to read this to know all about it, they are the ones who were present, and from all reports had a really grand time. For those who were unable to attend, the following is a brief summary of the happenings.

If more detailed reports are required ask your neighbors they were there and can no doubt supply all information as to exactly who was there, what they wore and with whom they danced, etc., all those intimate little details that you're wondering about and which space will not permit printing here.

The music, by the Wilson orchestra was of strictly high class quality throughout, from about 10:00 p.m. until the last note at 2:00 o'clock they were scarcely permitted to breathe the space between dances, a great variety of which were played, something to suit the taste of almost everyone. From those nice dreamy waltzes, fox trots, a bit of jitterbug to a French minuet which really went over with a bang, and a square dance that was something to remember, Mr. Jack Stinet who called the square dance was still speaking in hoarse whispers at the week-end as a result, but expects to be in shape and will call again upon you. You can take them from the Club Jack, you'd call a swell job.

Lunch was served shortly after midnight and the guest cleaned up on that too, there wasn't even a crumb left for the sparrows after everyone had been served. Another hour of listening followed, the orchestra continuing their starting performance of handing out music just the way it was meant to be handed out, congratulations on a grand music-making job.

SOMETHING WORTH INVESTIGATING

Some number of years ago, when nothing but a well covered traveller could find his way from Wainwright to Vermilion the need for a good gravelled highway between these up-and-coming towns was only too apparent.

After many a pleading with local and provincial government officials, the highway was started and today we think nothing of a trip to Vermilion just as it were a matter of course. Many will remember when a trip to Vermilion was a feat that when accomplished was worthy of many a tall yarn around the old stove, or worth much praise to the fellow who was lucky enough to have accomplished the undertaking.

To get back to the original subject this highway was started, but one thing that Wainwright will never forget is that it was started from the wrong end. Unfortunately the highway began from the Vermilion end and after a period of years finally reached our fair town.

The time that was expended in constructing a short 42 mile highway was just enough to give the lead to Vermilion over Wainwright in one or two instances.

The instance that we have in mind, is that the main portion of the populations on farms in the Aurburdale area became much too accustomed to travelling to Vermilion for their shopping consequently Wainwright lost a large trading area to another town that at that time, and today, is not as modern a town as Wainwright.

With the better road from Vermilion and the coming of the mail route one could not challenge the authority of the Post Master General when the mail was to be delivered from the far end of the line. Today this is all changed, there is a good road from either town, better train service from Wainwright, a better telegraph service from Wainwright although Wainwright is a smaller town. Our business section is more pleasing to the eye along with hosts of other opportunities that might be used to attract the attention of our friends in the area lying to the north of us.

The Aurburdale area is serviced with its telephone service from the Wainwright end, why not the mail route from this end. It must be very unhandy to have to plan long distances to Vermilion from Aurburdale to find that the man handling your particular line of farm machinery has been sold out for some time. You might say that's ridiculous, phoning long distance for 20 miles when they could phone Wainwright and ten chances to one would be able to procure their wants in this town. True enough dear reader, but that as stated above has been the case many a time over. The people to the north of Wainwright are not "Wainwright conscious" which in all probability is not their fault but ours here in town. Wainwright as a whole has done little or nothing to advertise the town to the country people aside from putting on a free show for the kiddies and a free bag of peanuts around Christmas. Don't get us wrong, we are not condemning the splendid efforts put forth in the Wainwright Days campaign, but we are condemning the lack of business shown to our country friends during the rest of the seasons.

One solution to the whole affair in our minds would be to place a movement on foot that would direct the mail to the Aurburdale district from this post office. This would make the parties concerned "Wainwright conscious", because no matter what importance is placed on other things in life mail day in our rural friends is the most awaited two days in the week and if the mails to the aforementioned districts were dispatched from our Post Office it would bring many a family to this town in preference to any other town.

This venture is an affair that should be of interest to town and country people alike that happen to do their shopping in Wainwright. One might ask, "just how would this affect me, I am not in business, I'm a salary earner?" We will tell you how this will affect you.

The price of goods or services depend on two things, mainly cost and volume of business done. If the volume of turn-over is increased the price will automatically go down. This means that if more people trade in Wainwright the price of goods to the consumer drop until everybody is paying less for the same goods or services. An example of that is the prices that have to be charged in our neighboring towns of smaller size. We all know of them being a little higher than in Wainwright and this is due to business done. It sums up—more volume of business, lower prices to the consumer.

In advocating this change in the mail routes from Vermilion Post Office to the Wainwright Post Office we can foresee a larger percentage of trading done in Wainwright which no one can deny will do the town no harm. This is a matter that is to be brought up at the next Board of Trade meeting, when it is earnestly hoped that a large turn-out will be on hand to discuss this vital question.

If the above mentioned is brought about it will not be done easily, because Vermilion will not give up her place in the minds of the people of the Aurburdale district without a fight. It will be brought about by the earnest hard work of people that are interested enough in Wainwright to go to bat for the things that are rightfully ours.

The Wainwright Star will back any movement of this nature and will help in any possible way to have the matter cleared to Wainwright's advantage, but right here and now is the time to express the view that it will need help and co-operation from every person in the town. If the Board of Trade will handle this matter, let's all back it to the limit.

Now don't you think there is something worth investigating?

Hints for the Household

BREAD. "The staff of life," as is ancient as mankind. It was first made from coarsely ground grains, to which no leavening was added. One day though, a homemaker, who was either careless or lazy, forgot a piece of the uncooked dough. When she finally baked it, she found it was much lighter than ever before, although it tasted decidedly sour.

However, she liked the more open texture of the bread, and as a result the use of leaven gradually spread. A small portion of the uncooked dough was used to lighten the next batch.

The home economist of the Consumer Section, Dominion Department of Agriculture says, that today the essentials for good bread are good yeast, right type of flour, the correct temperature for rising, 70 - 80°F, and thorough baking.

WHITE BREAD (Overnight Sponge)

1 cake dried yeast
 4 cups lukewarm water
 4 cups liquid (water, milk or potato water)
 3 tablespoons sugar
 2 tablespoons salt
 12 cups all-purpose flour (approx.)

2 tablespoons fat, melted
 Crumble yeast cake and soak in lukewarm water for 1/2 hour. To the lukewarm liquid add the sugar, dissolved yeast and half the flour, beating thoroughly until smooth. Use a container large enough to allow sponge to rise. Cover and leave at room temperature, 65 - 75°F, overnight or until sponge is very light and porous and more than double in bulk. Stir sponge, add salt, melted (not hot) fat, and enough of the remaining flour to make a stiff dough. Knead about 10 minutes, or until dough is smooth and elastic, with small bubbles on the surface. Form into a ball, place in a greased bowl, and lightly grease the surface to prevent a crust from forming. Cover and let rise in a warm place, 80 - 85°F, until double in bulk, about 2 hours.

Punch in dough, fold edges into centre and turn dough over with smooth side up. Let rise again until dough retains a finger print when pressed lightly or is double in bulk, about 1 hour. Turn out on board and divide into pieces which fill half-baking pans. Allow to stand a few minutes before shaping. Knead pieces slightly, shaping into loaves. Place in greased pans and lightly grease surface of dough. Cover and let rise in a warm place until dough retains a finger print when lightly pressed or is double in bulk, about 1 hour. Bake in a moderately hot oven, 375°F, until done, about 1 hour. Bread is baked when it shrinks from the sides of the pan and gives a hollow sound when tapped. Remove bread from pans immediately and place on racks or set crosswise on

New License Plates

Ready by March 15

New motor license plates for the year opening April 1 will be available to the public on March 20, according to information which the Alberta Motor Association has received from the provincial secretary's department. The department officials are making arrangements to distribute the plates to various selling offices in the province well in advance of the date they will be made available.

If the plates are issued at the time stated in March, it is believed that this will avoid a rush on April 1. Officials pointed out that as gasoline rationing regulations have been abolished by the Dominion government, there will not be the same need of making provision for early issuing of provincial licenses to facilitate the issuing of federal coupon books, as there are no longer needed.

Total number of car licenses issued in the present year which opened April 1 last is 91,375, compared with 91,500 the year before. Drivers' licenses show an increase from 151,735 to 158,644.

SOCIALISM EXPLAINED

An old story is going the rounds in Ottawa, a story that in view of recent election results is very timely. The story goes as follows:

The late Baron deRoethschid once had a valet named Alphome, an excellent man whose only fault (in the Baron's eyes) was his following after Socialism. The man was a sedate, harmless person, whose demonstration against his master's Capitalism amounted to nothing more than a calculation that if all the wealth in France were divided equally per capita, each individual would be the possessor of 2,000 francs.

"Well," exclaimed the Baron, "what of it?"

"Just this sir," said the enlightened Alphome, "I have 5,000 francs now."

If all the world were just like me, is that the world I'd like to see?

an economical supper-time treat?

Wheat-Meal Supper Dish

1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/4 cup boiling water
 1/4 cup Wheat-Meal
 1 cup grated American cheese
 Add salt to boiling water in sauce pan. Add cereal slowly, stirring constantly. Bring again to a boil and cook 3 minutes, stirring constantly. Add cheese and milk well. Pour into 6x8x3-inch pan. Chill until firm. Cut into 1/2-inch slices. Dip slices in flour and saute in small amount of fat, turning to brown both sides. Serve with buttered or creamed vegetables. Makes 6 servings.

Bluga

2 cups peas
 4 medium potatoes
 Chopped green peppers
 2 tablespoons oil or melted fat

Salt

This is a popular dish in India and is usually served with the dinner roast. Boil the peas and potatoes separately. When the potatoes are thoroughly done, drain and let them cool enough to be easily handled. Drain the peas. Heat the oil in a frying pan. Slice the potatoes and saute potatoes and peas together in the oil. Season with salt and sprinkle with chopped green peppers.

Low-Shortening Biscuits

2 cups sifted cake flour
 2 1/2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 2 tablespoons cold shortening, cut in small pieces
 1/2 cup plus 1 tablespoon milk
 Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Cut in shortening until mixture is as fine as meal.
 Add milk and stir quickly and lightly until soft dough is formed. Turn out on lightly floured board and knead gently 15 times. Roll 3/8 inch thick. Cut with floured 1 1/2 inch biscuit cutter. Bake on lightly greased baking sheet in hot oven (450°F.) 13 minutes, or until done. Makes 16 biscuits.

The rollicking, easy-going gent who interrupts your slumber each morning on Swift's "BREAKFAST CLUB" is one of the most unusual characters in radio. He is Don McNeill, a 700 pound, six-foot-two gent, who has been getting up at five every week day morning for nearly 15 years to give listeners on 400 stations the necessary "lift out of bed".

A recent nation-wide survey placed Don's "BREAKFAST CLUB" first among daytime variety programs for the second successive year. These awards (he has won many others) seem to come to Don as fully and easily as his program comes to us.

There's a reason, of course. Don is a master at ad-lib. He works almost entirely without benefit of script. What he says is his—it's spontaneous. Besides, he has a gift of understanding that has contributed in no small measure to his success. His inspirational messages bring consolation to many shut-ins who are constant listeners to the "BREAKFAST CLUB".

Don McNeill is a great success and after nearly thirteen years of Breakfast Clubbing, his comment is, "It's better than working!"

1945 TOPPERS ARE ANNOUNCED
The 1945 radio awards, announced recently, present a flattering picture in CICA's program schedule.

Ten programs or personalities heard regularly on this station won first places in their respective categories—and ten others were listed among the first five in their classes.

Besides these, 20 major awards, numerous dance bands, and musical selections often heard on this station but not as regular programs came in for top ratings.

Double first place awards were voted FREDERICK MCQUEE and MOLLY who came out on top in the Commercial Program category and as a best comedy team.

The ever-popular Bing Crosby, who evidently is back on Kraft Music Hall, led the field as best male vocalist of popular selections—and John Charles Thomas is tops among the classical male vocalists.

Dinah Shore was voted the best feminine vocalist in 1945 and the Andrews Sisters proved the most popular singing unit of the year.

BREAKFAST CLUB is the best daytime variety show and LUX RADIO THEATRE the best Dramatic Program.

Guy Lombardo has the best dance band offering sweet music and Tommy Dorsey led all swing bands.

Others found among the top five are Jack Benny, Edgar Bergen, The Chariters, and Ken Carpenter of Kraft Music Hall, Frank Munn, Danny Kaye, Frank Sinatra, and Harry Von Zell.

The unity of humanity is the only possible answer to the split atom.

To give out from your heart is the best way to keep your heart from giving out.

It will take a lot more home-work to solve the world's problems.

TO TURN THE TIDE

Dances, radio and movie thrills, orchestra leaders, football and basketball scores, rum, cokes, difficult parents and teachers, impossible younger brothers and sisters, the dullness of home—these are what the average teen-ager thinks about all day. What we think about all day is our philosophy of life.

Boiled down, this teen-age philosophy is to have fun in life. They like the dirt and danger of the world, and the only thing they see to fight for is freedom from parents, teachers, preachers and other "old-fashioned" preachers and other "old-fashioned" preachers.

In "old-fashioned" days this would have been called the philosophy of a "lost generation" and a "toboggan slide to hell." It is still all of that. But today it is also the philosophy of a "lost democracy" for there are malignant anti-democratic forces on the prowl for personal or party power. All they have to do to get control of today's youngsters and tomorrow's world is to keep their minds on sex, sport and trivialities; continue to divide them from their parents and responsibilities; promise all the "liberties" they want.

Today, however, there is also another gang of youngsters in the field. They still think of dates but of what they can give to a girl friend, or boy friend, not what they can get. They still think of movies but of pictures that show our homes and country as they can be—clean, strong, united. They still like music but music that sets you on your way, not the kind that "sends" you. They still go for sport but go out for the game not the box score.

They still think home can be dull but if it is they see what they can do to liven it up. They get all the family having fun as they pull together for a goal much bigger than it ever could be if all were thinking of themselves alone. They still think parents, sisters and brothers, teachers and preachers can be difficult but know that they can change them if they start by being less difficult themselves.

WHAT ARE MEN

TRYING TO DO?

What is the purpose of existence? There are two widely held concepts of human life which result in conflicting human conduct.

One is that man is only an animal. The other is that man is more than an animal; that he is also a personality whose growth occurs in service to mankind.

Those who hold that man is only an animal, tend to act like animals. They serve their own interests by getting and wielding power. They gang up with other animals to seize and extend control over every human being within their reach, yielding only whatever is necessary to secure compliance.

Those who believe that man's personality is most important, tend to act accordingly. They hold that the growth of individual personality is the purpose of human life. From this belief they get their faith in the sanctity of human life, in individual freedom and the inalienable rights of individuals and minorities. They have evolved democratic co-operation in its many forms.

The true aim of a democratic government is the establishment of laws which will foster the growth of individual personality. All acts of government should be measured by that standard. The limit of good government is the least law necessary to create equality of opportunity, to im-

Their philosophy is that: "We want a different world and, if the only way to get it is for us to be different first, we're going to be different starting now." This gang may well change the moral climate of the world, especially if you go out to help them. But it's a matter for infection, not correction. We can turn the tide of thinking and give new direction to our youngsters, but only if we find and follow new direction in our own lives.

CANDY COMES FROM CUBA

Hard, boiled candy imported from Cuba will sell to Canadian consumers at 29 to 31 cents per pound, through order of the Prices Board now effective. These prices are in line with comparable products manufactured in Canada, in some cases they slightly lower present price levels.

Applications to import candy from Cuba was received by the sugar administration up to January 21, but applicants were warned that because Canadian quotas for this year are lower than 1945, there may be a reduction in the amounts applied for.

Alberta Can Go Ahead—But Only On Good Roads

With the certainty that motor transportation will develop over greater importance to our economy in the coming years, it is more than ever vital to Alberta's prosperity that a good system of modern highways and good secondary roads be provided.

The Alberta Department of Public Works has planned such a highway program. It is important that this plan be put into effect without delay. Bring it to the attention of your friends and neighbours and any groups to which you belong. Press your provincial member for action. The Alberta Motor Association—a non-profit organization devoted to the interests of motorists whether commercial or private—has pressed unceasingly for an adequate road-building program. By becoming a member of this active group, you not only add your influence to its efforts, but also become entitled to many valuable services—for only $10 a year. Your nearest branch, in Calgary, Edmonton, Lethbridge or Medicine Hat will provide full information on request.—Advt.

Mr. Fitzpatrick—Frozen Food Locker Plant:

Mr. F. J. Fitzpatrick, Supervisor of Co-operatives for Alberta (under the Department of Trade and Industry) spoke on frozen food locker plants. Mr. Fitzpatrick stated that the Wainwright and District Co-operative Association Ltd. has applied for a license to operate a locker. All profits of the association go back to the members, therefore your frozen food locker plant rental fees in the long run will be set according to the bare cost of maintenance.

"Own your own locker plant" says Mr. Fitzpatrick. Get back in dividends all excess earnings.

More and more locker plants are being built all over Canada. They are being built in towns and cities of all sizes, lockers which have been in operation for two or three years are being enlarged due to popular demand.

Why not enjoy fresh fruits, vegetables, meat, fish and poultry the year around, strawberries at Christmas time. You can save on your food bill too.

Nine O'clock Closing: The meeting voted that the store close not later than 9:00 p.m. Saturdays.
